- Course Description:
- The study of salvation from a theological perspective, with an emphasis on how individuals have reconciled with God and delivered from sin. Because of sin, humanity needs to be saved (Genesis 3, Romans 3:23). Sin was atoned for by Christ's atoning death on the cross

(Isaiah 53, Romans 5:8).Salvation is a continuous process and a gift from God. having faith in Christ and being deemed righteous (Romans 5:1).learning to be more like Christ (1 Thessalonians 4:3).Heaven is the ultimate state for believers (Romans 8:30).

- The study of Christ, or Christology study of Jesus Christ's person, nature, and work from a theological perspective.

  The primary ideas are:

  Christ's Deity: According to John 1:1 and Colossians 2:9, Jesus is completely God.

  Christ's humanity: According to John 1:14 and Hebrews 4:15, Jesus is a complete human.

  Hypostatic Union: According to Philippians 2:6-7, Christ is one person with two natures: divine and human. Incarnation: According to Matthew 1:23, God took on human form in Jesus Christ.

- Messiahship: according to Luke 4:18–21, Jesus is the anticipated Savior. Christ's atoning death and triumphant resurrection are described in 1 Corinthians 15:3–4.Christ's present rule and eventual return are referred to as the Ascension and Second Coming (Acts 1:9–11).
